

Team Building References

Wyeth Canada

Markham, ON
Canada

This world leading pharmaceutical company participated in a half day team building programme as part of 3 day retreat. Effective, yet fun, the course was coupled with discussions led by an expert facilitator. This allowed the group to explore issues on communication, shared leadership, and problem solving.

Region of Peel Waste Management

Brampton, ON
Canada

Based on results of a "Needs Assessment" we created an effective one day Team Building event. It involved a half day of team building outdoor games with debriefing facilitation, combined with a half day of indoor theory led by our management consultant.

Associates Fleet Services

Mississauga, ON
Canada

This full service vehicle leasing and fleet management company, a leader in Canada, wanted a fun event that would foster team spirit and allow members to become better acquainted with one another. This was achieved with a variety of short teambuilding challenges.

tmp.worldwide

Toronto, ON
Canada

This large, international, executive search company required a teambuilding day with an emphasis on fun. This was achieved with a combination of teambuilding challenges, dog sledding, and snowmobiling. The programme was finished with a short debrief session to help reinforce the themes of the day.

Eli Lilly Canada Inc.

Scarborough, ON
Canada

Senior executives of the Government Lobbying department of this multi-national pharmaceutical company participated in a Team Building event. It was held in Prince Edward Island, over the course of 2 days. The event involved various team building "stations" connected by a sea kayaking trip. A thorough debriefing session followed, to relate the experiences back to the work place.

Apollo Photonics

Burlington, ON
Canada

A two day programme was designed for the senior management, sales staff, and engineering teams of this cutting edge technology firm. Under pressure to produce the next generation of optoelectronic systems and photonic device design software, Apollo Photonics enrolled in an intense teambuilding programme held at our remote lodge. The seclusion, combined with our facilitator, helped to focus their team on overcoming the obstacles to their product release date.

St. Lawrence Cement

Concord, ON
Canada

The top executives of this multi-national firm were flown, in float planes, to Deerhurst Resort for a series of business meetings. A two day "Executive Adventure" was organized involving a wilderness canoe trip in Algonquin Park.

Hewlett Packard (Canada) Ltd.

Mississauga, ON
Canada

In response to a Team Fitness Test we had administered earlier, we designed a brief "Wild Adventure Course". The games highlighted various aspects of effective teamwork that would benefit this high tech computer company.

CAA – Canadian Automobile Association – South Central Ontario

Hamilton, ON
Canada

In conjunction with CAA-SCO's annual financial meeting, we created an effective one day Team Building event. It involved a half day of team building outdoor games with debriefing facilitation, combined with a half day of indoor theory led by our management consultant.

Nature Conservancy Of Canada

Toronto, ON
Canada

We organized and hosted a Team Building programme for their Board of Directors during their annual general meeting. The event took place at a conservation area in the vicinity of Dundas, Ontario.

Pfizer Pharmaceuticals Inc.

New York, NY
USA

We designed and implemented an intensive 3 day Team Building programme for a division of the multinational drug manufacturer. This unit had 32 members consisting of their entire team from General Manager to Secretarial staff. The programme was held at Deerhurst Resort in Huntsville and consisted of "in class" theory sessions coupled with outdoor "hands on" activities including Dog Sledding and Snowmobiling.

Ontario Ministry Of Tourism

Toronto, ON
Canada

We have taken several groups of Japanese and Australian media, on behalf of the Ministry of Tourism, on dog sledding trips and canoe trips in Algonquin Park.

Royal Air Force – RAF Shawbury

Shrewsbury, Shropshire
England

We took a group of helicopter pilots-in-training on a week long dog sledding programme. The RAF included it as part of their ALT sessions (Adventurous Leadership Training).

Knowledge Management Corporation

Nice
France

As part of their computer training programme in Toronto, we have taken a dozen of their people on snowmobile safaris in the Orillia area.
